Deportation Defense
Undocumented? Illegal? Deportable?

• Word Trouble: illegal and undocumented

• Actual charges by the Department of Homeland Security:
  • Violating the conditions of a visa, including overstay
  • Criminal charges that make visa holder deportable
  • Entry without inspection (EWI)
  • Charges made on Notice to Appear (NTA), which put immigrants in “immigration proceedings”

• DEPORTABILITY ≠ IMMIGRATION STATUS

• removal = deportation
Deferred Action For Childhood Arrivals- DACA

- On June 2012, under the Obama administration DACA was created
  - You were under 31 years old as of June 15, 2012 and physically present
  - Came to the U.S before your 16th birthday;
  - You have lived continuously in the U.S June 15, 2007 until the present;
  - EWI or your lawful status expired as of June 15, 2012
  - In School, graduated from high school or GED or have been honorably discharged from the Coast Guard or military
  - You have NOT been convicted of a felony, certain significant misdemeanors (including a single DUI), or three or more misdemeanors of any kind.
Timeline

- In 2014 - A federal district court in Texas blocks the implementation of the DAPA and DACA Extension
- August 2016 - Trump promised to “immediately terminate” the DACA
- September 5, 2017- Trump administration rescinds DACA
  - Being the phase-out process
  - DHS would not accept initial applications
  - DACA renewals expiring by March 5, 2018, would be able to apply for renewal by Oct. 5, 2017
- January 13, 2018 – U.S Court District challenged the administrations decision and U.S. Citizenship and Immigration services (USCIS) announced they were once again accepting DACA renewals
Where is DACA now?

- On April 24, 2018 The District Court of Columbia issued a decision about DACA.
- Renewal applications are still being accepted by USCIS, including people whose DACA has already expired.
- NO initial applications are being accepted
- No applications for Advance Parole
- Trump administration has 90 days to provide a better reason to end the program
- After 90 days they will accept initial DACA application
